ThunderWolves Golf Classic

The 10th annual Waste Connections of Pueblo ThunderWolves Golf Classic benefits the Colorado State University – Pueblo student-athlete scholarship fund.

Currently, the CSU-Pueblo athletics department, with more than 425 student-athletes competing in 16 varsity sports, provides the equivalent of 90 in-state scholarships, thanks mostly to private donations.

Through events like the Waste Connections of Pueblo ThunderWolves Golf Classic, the CSU-Pueblo athletics department hopes to increase the amount of scholarships to 122. With these increases, CSU-Pueblo coaches will be able to recruit not only better athletes, but better students and citizens as well.

Entry into the Waste Connections of Pueblo ThunderWolves Golf Classic includes:

- Green fee
- Cart
- Pre-tournament breakfast
- Complimentary range balls
- Special Tournament Favor
- Official CSU-Pueblo Golf towel
- Complimentary on-course Miller and Pepsi products
- Complimentary on-course refreshments
- Post-tournament lunch
- On-course giveaways

Rick Pobst Memorial Scholarship

Rick Pobst Memorial Scholarship

Rick Pobst was an outstanding golfer from Pueblo who died at an early age due to cancer. His parents, Bob and Edda Lou Pobst, founded the Rick Pobst Memorial Golf Scholarship in 1988 to help provide money for CSU-Pueblo golf scholarships, as well as to remind people of their son's great accomplishments on and off the golf course.

Past recipients of the Rick Pobst Memorial Scholarship include Dave Vecchio, Mike Lewis, Chris Finn, Talby Velasco, and Jason Allen, to name a few.

Five percent of the proceeds raised from the ThunderWolves Golf Classic will go towards the Rick Pobst Memorial Golf Scholarship.

The Pueblo Country Club

The Pueblo Country Club is the host course for the 9th annual Waste Connections of Pueblo ThunderWolves Golf Classic. Imagine a place where you'll find high quality services and programs in a relaxed, friendly inviting atmosphere; not to mention a top-rated 18-hole championship golf course, a state-of-the-art indoor tennis center, a seven-lane Olympic outdoor swimming pool, and the finest dining and views in Southern Colorado.
